2025 BICENTENNIAL OF ORGANIZED NORWEGIAN IMMIGRATION TO THE UNITED STATES

One of the leaders encouraging Norwegians to immigrate to the US was Cleng Peerson. I am currently reading Cleng Peerson by Alfred Hauge, translated by Erik J. Friis. It is a fictionalized version of Cleng's life. Divided into tales, it gives an interesting portrayal of what life was like especially in the war years of what we called the war of 1812 with England and the war England was fighting with Napoleon and Denmark eventually turning Norway over to Sweden as part of a peace transaction with no care to the Norwegian people! Cleng was on prisoner of war ship escaped only to find many were starving in Norway--not only the people, but the animals including wolves! It isn't hard to understand why people left Norway! Here is where you can check out more info <https://crossings.norwegianamerican.com/> and here you can register your event <https://utvandermuseet.no/2025> . Other sites may be informative as well--search Sloopers, Restauration, etc.
