PRESIDENT'S GREETING

Godt nytt år!! Happy New year lodge members and friends! As we embark on the adventure of 2023, it's a good time to reflect on the year past and some of our hits and misses from 2022 (it was mostly hits!). Overall, what a fantastic year for the lodge. We were able to return to hosting many of our favorite annual events, and many members were able to participate in the lodge for the first time in quite a while. Just a few weeks ago we had our holiday Julebord, and it was a beautiful night. What fun we had circling the tree and singing together. So many people contributed their time and efforts to the event, thank you all for volunteering. A special thank you to JoAnne Rudo and Randi Aulie for helping us bring back this treasured event.

This year we welcomed in well over 100 new members, many of whom got involved right off the bat. If you are a new member still getting acquainted with the lodge, the last page of this newsletter has a listing of all the upcoming events. We would love to see you soon at the lodge. There is something for everyone in the family.

To the world of sports, where young Norwegian tennis star Casper Ruud finished the year at #3 in the world rankings, capping off a career year with 3 tournament titles and a 2nd place finish at the prestigious year end ATP Finals. Big things seem to be on the horizon for Casper indeed! Over on the links, Viktor Hovland finished in the top 10 in the world, and at age 25 has many stellar years ahead. Both men were born and raised in Oslo and are making Norwegians proud all over the globe! If that has you inspired to get your sporting fix, now is the time to head up to Trollhaugen for a day of skiing and snowshoeing. The District 2 Ski Race will be here before you know it on Saturday

February 4th, which is being hosted this year by your very own Leif Erikson Lodge. If you are not one for the skis, you can still join us for a fun day and hang by the fire until lunch!

Next week we will be officially welcoming in the 2023 LEL Board. Please join us on January 11th for the Installation ceremony. Thank you once again to everyone who served on the Board in 2022, most of whom are returning to serve Leif Erikson Lodge again.

I hope to see many of you at the Annual Crab Feed later this month. As you know this is the major event for the Leif Erikson Lodge Education Foundation each year, and quite a party to be sure! I have a table reserved for my family and can't wait to dig into some delicious food while supporting the foundation and its fundraising goals.

Now on to some New Year's resolutions! This year we hope to continue to offer a variety of interesting and entertaining programs for our member's each month, while trying a few new events to compliment many of your favorites. There will be a Spring Tea Concert, our 5k fun run will be in full effect, and Syttende Mai should be quite a scene.

As always, if there is anything I or any of your Lodge Board members can do to help you get the most of your membership to Leif Erikson Lodge and Sons of Norway, please don't hesitate to reach out. Contact info can be found on page 2; don't be a stranger!

As you can see, we have a busy membership meeting, so we are starting a bit earlier than usual. We begin the evening with Zhanhong Kuang playing an array of music. She has a BA in piano performance and collaborates with other musicians to perform chamber, choral, jazz and church music. Ms. Kuang was the pianist for jazz orchestras and performed at Tula's Jazz club. She presently is an accompanist for the Seattle School District and the Norwegian Ladies Chorus and teaches in her own studio in Seattle.

Have you noticed all the organizations, including the Leif Erikson Lodge, that have an indigenous land acknowledgment? Our program will give you an opportunity to learn firsthand about the struggles of the Duwamish from our featured speaker, Ken Workman. Ken is a Native American from the Duwamish Tribe, is the fifth-generation grandson of Chief Seattle and the great, great, great nephew of Princess Angeline. He has been involved with the Duwamish River Cleanup Coalition, the SW Seattle Historical Society and is president of the Duwamish Tribal Services and a member of the Tribal Council. Mr. Workman can be found throughout Seattle speaking his indigenous language and talking about the Duwamish and their history and struggles. He is retired as a Boeing Systems and Data analyst.

Malin has designed a hearty winter meal with Cabbage rolls, potatoes/gravy/lingonberries, and a salad with apples along with dark bread and an apple cake with vanilla sauce. Remember to RSVP by Monday, January 9 either online, the bulletin board or by calling the lodge at 206-783-1274.

GREETINGS FROM THE KAFFESTUA

We are open Wednesdays and Fridays 10am-2pm.
JANUARY DATES

We will be open all Wednesdays and Fridays in January in addition to the First Saturday Kaffestua on January 7th. As we go into the flu and cold season (as well as the possibility for the return of Covid), the State of Washington recommends mask wearing "when the county in which the facility is located has a medium or high CDC COVID-19 Community Level". Mask wearing is optional in the Kaffestua currently, but we respect those who feel more comfortable wearing a mask.

NORNA LADIES

On behalf of the Norna Ladies of LEL, we hope you had a wonderful Holiday season and are looking forward to an even brighter New Year with your family and friends.

This fall, we had two potluck lunches, participated in the annual LEL Bazaar, and took a "field trip" to Swanson's Nursery for lunch and pre-Christmas shopping, and had a Christmas lunch and gift exchange. We will announce other activities for the new year soon. You'll find our plans here – in your monthly Vikingen. We look forward to getting back to our "more normal" routine as we finally pass through that COVID season that seemed to never end... along with the unexpected snowy December.

On a personal note, we share news about one of our long-time members and friends, as reported by her daughter, Heidi. Janet Fruchtl has moved to Aegis Living Kirkland for assisted and memory care. Janet served the Lodge for twenty-five years as our Financial Secretary. She served as an executive board member for as many years, along with other committees in Leif Erikson as well as the District. Janet was also our Norna Ladies treasurer for many years. We miss seeing Janet and Heidi and send her and her family our best wishes.

Stay safe and warm,

Judy Gray & Diane Adams
Co-Presidents

NORWAY PARK NEWS

Traditional Norwegian cultural Jul time activities made a big-time comeback since 2019 at Norway Park. The aroma of Norwegian meatballs (norske kjøttballer) shredded pork, ertestuing (stewed peas) and baby red potatoes, dressed in brown gravy, filled the Berg Pavilion at the lake. The annual Julebord was back, a new Christmas tree made its debut, decorated nicely with the stringed Norwegian flags draped in a flowing manner. Tables with seasonal red tablecloths were positioned in a circle, surrounding in view of the Christmas tree. A very koselig atmosphere, was created by a crackling fire in the pavilion fireplace, especially after a light chilling snowfall from the previous day, it was a warming experience.

The Julebord started out with traditional Norwegian music by Video DeeJay Andy Jensen. Deli meats, pickled herring, cheese appetizers displayed on tables, chilled canned pop and other refreshing beverages provided.

The Julebord dinner, was a queue of hot chaffing dishes served by LERA volunteers, tables were drawn with numbers to receive the main meal in an orderly fashion. Post Julebord dinner, raffled items were won by drawn numbers, followed by dessert of traditional risengrøt (rice porridge). The lucky one who found the almond within the dessert, received a prize, as per tradition.

The final Julebord activities were the Norwegian traditional circling the Christmas tree with Norwegian Christmas songs mixed with English ones. The Christmas passage from the Bible, was read to children both in Norwegian and in English, keeping with a longtime tradition. Video DeeJay Andy Jensen continued to provide music video to guests in attendance, and for the last two Sankt Hans Aftens has been entertaining those in attendance. We also welcome Andy Jensen as a new Leif Erikson Lodge Member.

In other seasonal news, the residential part of Norway Park is lit up in Christmas lights and décor, what could be more cheerful during the dark months than this? Who will be the top winners for 2022?

As 2022 comes to a close, 2023 ushers in the 60th year of Norway Park, plenty of news on this soon.

Erik-Bjarne Witzøe has been voted in to serve for another three years as a Lodge Rep. Congratulations to Erik!

Submitted by Erik-Bjarne Witzøe – Lodge Rep.
An-Magrih Erlandsen and Doug Warne are also Lodge Reps to Norway Park

JANUARY 2023 HAPPY HOUR

After a fall of successful 2nd Saturday Happy Hours except December 10th when we had Julebord, we will be back in the swing of things for 2023. Please join your fellow members and their guests on the second Saturday of January happy hour for a good time from 5:00 until 8:00 pm on January 14th. You'll receive some tickets from the first drawing held at about 6:00 pm by bringing something to share on the snack table. Supper/Snack price is still only five dollars for snacks including two drinks. Try and find that price in Seattle for two drinks and food for only a fiver?

We have had some suggestions to include a small activity along with the socializing with friends each Happy Hour in 2023. So, you might see an auction, a Karaoke night, Bunco contest, or "play your accordion for dinner night" by the President of the Northwest Accordion Society. When you come, make a suggestion or two about what you might like to see for a 45 minute mini-event during Happy Hour. Regular Raffle tickets are a dollar, and we have some very interesting things including some delicious high stakes special "Spicy Novels". Hope to see you all from 5 to 8 pm.
